

TWO UNDEFEATED TEAMS GO HEAD-TO-HEAD

Sept 25/91

The Concordia Stingers will be travelling to Queen's University to take on the Golden Gaels this Saturday. The Stingers and Golden Gaels are in a first-place tie after two weeks of action. 6th ranked Concordia has defeated both the Carleton Ravens and the Bishop's Gaiters while 3rd ranked Queen's has collected its victories against the McGill Redmen and Carleton.

Queen's finished the 1990 season in third place in the O.Q.I.F.C. with a 4-2-1 league record. The Golden Gaels advanced to the O.Q.I.F.C. final before losing to Bishop's 20-9. Kicker Jamie Galloway is back for his fourth season after leading the O.Q.I.F.C. in scoring last year with 50 total points. In the backfield, Queen's is led by Brad Elberg and Ed Kidd. Elberg, a versatile halfback, rushed for 563 yards and three TD's. Kidd, who also serves as reserve quarterback rushed nine times for 69 yards.

Concordia is hot off a wild one with the Bishop's Gaiters in Lennoxville. Concordia held a 31 point lead in the third quarter but Bishop's battled back to take charge 41-40 with five minutes left in the game. However, with a minute left to play quarterback Ron Aboud connected with Dio Mastrodomenico for the final touchdown that gave the Stingers a 46-41 lead.

Mastrodomenico and Aboud each had two touchdowns. While passing for a total of 265 yards, Aboud became the O.Q.I.F.C.'s all-time leading passer with 5,403 total yards. The previous mark was established by Carleton's Cam Collins (1982-'86) with 5,213.
